

Web Design Proposal

Prepared On: 6/15/2023

Prepared By: Christopher Lewis of CML Web Designs

Prepared For: G&E Innovations Consulting, LLC

Thank you for showing your interest in teaming up with us for your website development project.

At CML Web Designs, we hold one goal above all our competitors and that is: 100% client satisfaction. We are dedicated to uphold the highest standards for project planning, development, and execution. We are determined to build a perfect website for your company; on-time and on-budget.

We have built and designed websites for several companies around central Arkansas with great success, and we are quite excited to get started on yours.

In this web development proposal, you will find what we feel is the best solution for your web development needs, including the associated cost, delivery timeline, and project terms and conditions.

Thanks again for this opportunity to work with you.
